Combine that data with an authentic simulation of the real-life football interactions, and we get game recognition that's so good it could make the difference between a great match and a masterpiece. Four new features have been added to the game engine, giving players even more options to make their games look and play more like real matches. HyperMotion FIFA 22 introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay. Combine that data with an authentic simulation of the real-life football interactions, and we get game recognition that's so good it could make the difference between a great match and a masterpiece. Four new features have been added to the game engine, giving players even more options to make their games look and play more like real matches. Create-A-Player With Create-A-Player, you can create a new player, select from thousands of customizable traits and choose which actions he or she will make on the pitch. Designing an entirely new player is easier than ever before. This year, Create-A-Player takes personalization even further by letting you define specific physical traits for your new player. For example, they can wear a heavy, futuristic suit with a visor and a cape. In addition to customizing the physicality of your player, you can also personalize their personality and more. Create-A-Player is available for FUT Ultimate Team and Ultimate Team, it lets you create players, but also create your roster of players and build your club in franchise mode – this is designed for Ultimate Team, it's the same as the Create-A-Club feature. Create-A-Player is available to purchase separately on PlayStation Store for £3.99/$4.99. FEATURE: Create a new player, choose his or her traits, customize his or her personality – and then play your way to a winning team. How to: Create a new player; select, customize, and play your way to victory. Get started – right away. A quick and easy way to quickly and easily start creating custom teams and clubs. Passion –
